47 MINERS DIE IN COLORADO EXPLOSION

Nine Men Rescued Alive and 16
Still Believed to Be Entombed.

Engineer Gives Life to Rescue
Four in the Great Disaster.

DELAGIA, Colo., Nov. 9.—The bodies of thirty-five men were found in the north entry where the explosion originated at 11 o'clock today. They are being brought out slowly over the debris, but are not yet identified.

Rescued from the effects of gas, 14 miners, imprisoned in the No. 3 mine of the Victor American Fuel Company since yesterday afternoon, staggered out of No. 2 mine at 10 o'clock today. The rescued announced that eight more men had been found alive. They had all been working in the far end of the fourth entry and had escaped the force of the explosion, but in the attempt to find their way out through the No. 2 mine they had become lost. All were foreigners.

DELAGIA, Colo., Nov. 9.—Twelve men are known to have been killed in an explosion that wrecked a portion of mine No. 3 of the Victor-American Fuel Company here yesterday. Nine men were rescued alive and sixteen still are believed to be in the mine.

The dead:
WILLIAM LEWIS, mine superintendent.
W. J. EVANS, assistant superintendent.
WILLIAM KILPATRICK, outside foreman.

LEWELLYN EVANS, pit boss.
DAVID BELL, motorman.
JAMES G. YOUNG, master mechanic.

WILLIS EVANS, engineer of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, at Primero.
JAMES BENNETT, motorman.
L. MARTIN, carpenter.
BERT JENNINGS, night boss.
Two unidentified men.

LOSERS LIFTED IN RESCUE.
Wills Evans, a young engineer of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, gave his life in the rescue of the four miners taken out alive last night.

Evans, who graduated from the Colorado School of Mines only two years ago, came to Delagua with the rescue car of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company yesterday afternoon.

HAD OXYGEN HELMETS.
He immediately joined the party searching the fourth north entry, equipped with oxygen helmets. They worked their way along the entry and heard the faint tapping of a pick on solid rock, the wireless call of the miner.

Realizing that at least some of their comrades were alive, they attacked the fanly mass of rock that blocked the entry with renewed hope. When they tore through the cave they found four Star miners alive and unhurt. They were 2600 feet from the surface and the passages were filled with after-damp.

EVANS PROVES A HERO.
The rescuers feared to take the imprisoned men to the surface without helmets and without a moment's hesitation Evans and one of the other rescuers took off their helmets and gave them to the rescued men and waited for the return of the rescue party. When the rescuers returned Evans had disappeared.

The party supposed he had followed them out without a helmet and went out without searching for him. They discovered he had not reached the surface and another party was sent in after him. They discovered him at 11 o'clock last night unconscious from gas. He had evidently attempted to reach the surface and had been lost. He never regained consciousness and died early today.

FIRE CAUSED EXPLOSION.
The fire is blamed for the explosion and is believed to have started in a broken entry door. It has been distinguished.

Lewis, Young, Llewellyn, Evans and Bell were killed by a fall of rock within 300 feet of the entrance of the main slope. Bennett and Martin were standing at the mouth of the main slope and were killed by flying rocks.

NEEDHAM ELECTED.
STOCKTON, Nov. 9.—Cowell conceded the election of Needham in sixth congressional district.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.—Fifty-five precincts complete in Sacramento county give for supreme court: Melvin, 42,938; Sloss, 44,781; Bledsoe, 53,821; Lawlor, 2,658.

CHICO, Nov. 9.—Complete returns from the Third Illinois congressional district give the election to Wm. W. Wilson (Rep.) by 20 votes.
Fred J. Crowley (Dem.) promises a contest.

REPUBLICANS SWEEP INTO ALL STATE OFFICES

Tidal Wave of Votes Carry Party One More Into Complete Power.

Johnson's Plurality Surprise;
Solid G. O. P. Delegation in Congress

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—While the returns from yesterday's election are still far from complete, they confirm the earlier estimates of a complete Republican victory in California. Johnson, has a indicated plurality of from 25,000 to 30,000, and the entire state ticket will approximate these figures.

Virtually complete returns from the city of San Francisco show a closer contest than was expected, even by the Republicans, who virtually conceded the city to Bell. Johnson has apparently carried San Francisco by about 2,000 plurality.

A solid Republican delegation to Congress indicated and the state legislature is solidly Republican, insuring the election of a Republican successor to United States Senator Flint.

Rain and heavy weather throughout the greater part of the state last night and today has seriously interfered with the gathering of the returns.

Only 338 precincts complete out of 352 in the city of San Francisco, Johnson maintains a lead over Bell, the vote being Johnson 28,430, Bell 22,381.

Late returns confirm the reports of an extraordinary Republican victory. The foregoing precincts give J. Stitt Wilson, Socialist candidate for Governor, 9,155. The Socialist vote in this city four years ago was 4013 and in the whole state 16,024.

Unofficial estimates give the Socialist vote of Los Angeles as 10,000, as against 3047 four years ago. The party claims to have polled a total vote in the state in excess of 40,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—The vanguards of the Republican party in this city and throughout the state have swept their candidates triumphantly into office and the indications from almost complete returns in many districts, as compiled at noon today show that with a very few exceptions and those incumbents have been victorious.

The great surprise of the election was the plurality given Hiram W. Johnson in San Francisco. Although reports last evening indicated that Bell's plurality would be a safe one, the Republican candidate completely tossed him out in many districts where he was believed to have a safe margin. Johnson's triumph in the three largest cities of the state, San Francisco, Oakland and Los Angeles, is complete.

SOLID IN CONGRESS.
As far as California is concerned, she will have a solid Republican delegation to Congress. In this city Julius Kahn easily ran away from his Democratic opponent, Walter Ma Arthur.

A second noteworthy feature of the contest was the victory won in San Francisco for the Hon. Henry A. Melvin, justice of the Supreme Court. Melvin scored a signal success over his opponent, Superior Judge William P. Lawlor, and in four completed districts, totaled at this time, the vote shows Melvin 5470 and Lawlor 3357.

BACKED BY PARTY.
The Republican nominees were backed in the city and throughout the state by the ticket and the list of State officers will not contain the name of one Democrat, although Controller A. B. Nye held both Republican and Democratic nominations.

The qualification board and the railroad commission present a solid Republican party nominees leave no doubt as to the complete result at this time. In San Francisco the four incumbent superior judges were re-elected by safe pluralities. The highest vote cast was that for Superior Judge Frank J. Murphy of the Judicial Court, who was closely seconded by George H. Cohan of the criminal department.

BAHRS IN REAR.
Judges Seawell and Trout were not so far in the lead, but are easily 5000 to 7000 votes ahead of George H. Bahrs, who is the closest for the assembly in the 37th and 39th districts. Early this morning it seemed likely that Edward P. Walsh, Democrat, had triumphed over Edwin J. Baumbarger in the 37th, but at noon the return is left the situation very much in the air. In the 39th district J. E. White, Republican, is at Walter T. Lyon, Democrat, but either

DISTRICTS IN DOUBT.
The only issue that is left in doubt in San Francisco as the contest goes to press is the contest for the assembly in the 37th and 39th districts. Early this morning it seemed likely that Edward P. Walsh, Democrat, had triumphed over Edwin J. Baumbarger in the 37th, but at noon the return is left the situation very much in the air. In the 39th district J. E. White, Republican, is at Walter T. Lyon, Democrat, but either

Terrible Struggle Supposed to Victim Died.

SPOKANE, Nov. 9.—The body of R. H. Patterson, a young carpenter, was found at the bottom of a sewer manhole at Pacific avenue and Division street early today.

Indications are that the man was murdered for $100, which he was known to have had last night.

Patterson's head was badly cut. One theory is that after a struggle he was knocked on the head, robbed, dragged across the street and thrown into the manhole.

His hat and a garter were found just across Pacific avenue.

King Albert Center of Unusual
Demonstration As He Drives
Through Streets.

BRUNSWICK, Nov. 9.—An unusual demonstration occurred on the streets today as King Albert drove to the palace of the nation to open parliament.

A million sheets of paper bearing a demand for universal suffrage stormed the royal cortege and some heavy packages of these were thrown at the King's carriage by a crowd of Socialists. His Majesty was not hit.

As the King opened the parliamentary session violent altercations between the Socialists and Catholics were begun at once.

man may win by less than ten ballots and the remaining precincts to be heard from may change the situation.

ALL VICTORIOUS.
In all of the other assembly districts the Republican candidates have been victorious, and the four Republicans in the State senatorial districts have been re-elected.

The explanation which is vouchsafed for the plurality in this city of Hiram W. Johnson is the remarkable showing the Socialist party, who took votes away from Bell and undoubtedly contributed to the enormous State plurality of the Republican governor.

With six precincts missing San Francisco gives:
JOHNSON 23,897
BELL 22,345
WILSON 9,155
WALLACE 19,203
SPELLACY 72,091

COMPLETE RETURNS.
Complete returns from 538 election precincts out of 515 in California outside of San Francisco, shows the following totals:
Governor—Johnson, R., 33,527; Bell, D., 25,925.
Lieutenant Governor—Wallace, R., 33,821; Spellacy, D., 24,256.
Supreme Court Justices—Melvin, R., 34,979; Sloss, R., 35,931; Bledsoe, D., 18,163; Lawlor, D., 20,838.

ORANGE.
SANTA ANA, Nov. 9.—Forty precincts out of 42 in Orange county give for Governor: Johnson, 2707; Bell, 2408.

SANTA CLARA.
SAN JOSE, Nov. 9.—With 9000 votes counted, Johnson leads in this county by 920 and Wallace by 650. Indications are that Johnson's plurality will be from 1400 to 2000.

For associate justices, Melvin and Sloss are leading their Democratic opponents by about 1500 each.

Hayes, Republican for Congress, is more than 2500 votes ahead of Hayden.

HUMBOLDT.
EUREKA, Nov. 9.—With forty precincts complete in Humboldt county the results show:
Johnson, 1433; Bell, 1565. The county will go to Johnson by about 1200.

For Congress, Englebright, Republican, leads Baker, 2743 to 544.

LOS ANGELES.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—Incomplete returns city and county indicate Stephens (Republican) is elected to Congress in the Seventh district over Handley (Democrat) by upwards of 20,000 plurality.

YOLO.
WOODLAND, Nov. 9.—Yolo county complete gives:
Johnson, 1555; Bell, 1891; Wallace, 1537; Spellacy, 1711; Supreme Court; Melvin, 1539; Sloss, 1713; Bledsoe, 1709; Lawlor, 1825.
Same in 1908: Taft, 1714; Bryan, 1828.

EASTERN STATES IN LANDSLIDE TO DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Republicans Are Snowed Under in Many States and Have Lost Control of Lower House

The sweep of the political tidal wave which rolled over the country is further emphasized by additional returns and revised figures at hand today.

The Democratic majority in the House of Representatives will be at least 42, and possibly more, as compared with the present Republican majority of 43.

Added to the reversal in the lower branch of Congress the morning returns showed the Republican majority of 26 in the United States Senate rapidly approaching the vanishing point, although the Republicans are now reasonably assured of 48 Senators, or one more than the necessary majority, with a number of States still in doubt.

The most notable changes from those presented last night are summarized up as follows:

In Ohio, a Democratic legislature has been elected, insuring a Democratic successor to Senator Dick, Republican, and the plurality of Governor Harmon is increased to 60,000.

The West Virginia legislature is Democrat and will elect a Democratic Senator to succeed Senator Scott, Republican.

BEVERIDGE'S FATE IN DOUBT.
In Indiana the legislature which will choose a successor to Senator Beveridge is in doubt, with the Democrats claiming a majority of twelve and the Republicans maintaining that Beveridge will have a small margin.

Iowa is still uncertain, with both sides claiming the governorship. The Pennsylvania legislature is sure to be Republican and will elect a Republican successor to Senator Oliver.

Washington was a Republican legislature which appears to insure the election of Miles Polinder to the Senate.

The Utah legislature, which elects a United States Senator, also is Republican, while that of Montana is in doubt.

HEAVY PLURALITY.
Indications point to the election of the Republican candidate for Governor of California, Hiram W. Johnson, by a heavy plurality.

Incomplete returns from Oregon indicate the election of the Democratic candidate for Governor, Oswald West, by a small plurality.

Washington's legislature, which will elect a United States Senator, is believed to be safely Democratic.

DIX PLURALITY 65,000.
Aside from these main developments of today the results already announced remain virtually unchanged. The plurality of John A. Dix, Democrat, elected Governor of New York, approximates 65,000. Early today Governor-elect Dix left his home at Thompson for a rest in the Adirondacks. Dix carried the entire Democratic state ticket with him to victory.

The plurality of Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, in New Jersey, is now placed at 20,000 and that of Tucker Baldwin, Democrat, in Connecticut, at 3500.

NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—New York City, with only 16 election districts counting, gives Dix 225,078; Stimson 194,883; Hoppel, 39,630.

Stimson's upstate plurality was still estimated at about 36,000, leaving a net plurality for Dix of approximately 71,750.

MONTANA.
HELENA, Mont., Nov. 9.—Both Chairman Waite of the Republicans and Stewart of the Democrats issued statements early today claiming the legislature on joint ballot. Waite says the Republicans have 54 sure, with indications of 56, while Chairman Stewart gives the Republicans only 44.

The legislature is composed of 102 members, making 52 necessary to elect a senator. Should there be a tie Lieutenant Governor Allen, a Republican, would cast the deciding vote.

WASHINGTON.
SEATTLE, Nov. 9.—Later returns in the state of Washington shows gains in the legislature for the Democrats, but not enough to reduce the large Republican majority materially.

In King county George F. Cotterill, Democrat, for United States Senator, lost his seat in the state senate.

The plurality of the three Republican congressmen-elect and the five Republican supreme judges-elect are so decisive that there has been no attempt to get the final figures on their vote. The returns on which the success of the woman suffrage amendment to the state constitution are based are meager, but come mostly from the cities which the suffrage leaders feared would vote against them.

In the First Congressional district Humphrey, Republican, carried 82

MINNESOTA.
ST. PAUL, Nov. 9.—Minnesota elected a complete state ticket and at midnight the indications were that eight Republicans and one Democrat would be sent to Congress. Congressman Hammond, Democrat, apparently has been re-elected by a reduced majority.

Stanley Anderson, apparently, has a safe lead in the First district, which

BLAMES TARIFF LAW FOR DEFEAT

Republican Leader Says That Revision Has Always Been Disturbing Element.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—William B. McKinley, chairman of the Republican national congressional committee, shortly before 11 o'clock last night made the following statement:

"When it is considered, as now seems to be the fact, that barely two-thirds of the Republican vote in the Middle Western states came to the polls, and the further fact that factional differences had aroused unusual bitterness among the Republicans, the result of today's election is not at all surprising."

"Every effort to promote harmony was made by this committee, in many instances with success."

"The revision of the tariff always has proved a disturbing element in American politics, and this year has been no exception. Judging by the light vote polled, the Republican party yesterday had the same experience it had in 1892, two years after the passage of the McKinley bill."

"At that time 40 per cent of the Republican votes in the Middle Western states were lost to vote for the Republican party when it was not quite clear that the McKinley tariff measure was the one they wanted."

"Today's election is a repetition of the result at that time. It is my opinion that after two years it shall have been proven that the present tariff has been beneficial to the country and the same conditions will prevail as in 1892, when the Republicans swept the country."

"After the Democratic Wilson tariff bill had been made law, the distress in the country was so widespread that the people returned the Republican party to power by a tremendous majority."

"Looking to the future, it is my opinion that this defeat will wipe out all factional differences and that the Republican party will present a united front in 1912."

"There will be no question in my mind that the American people in 1912 will yield to the patriotic demand made by the present occupant of the White House in a substantial endorsement of the wise and patriotic administration he has given them."

PRESIDENT SILENT ON THE OUTCOME

Taft Feels Keenly the Disappointment of Losing House to Bourbons.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Feeling keenly the blows dealt by voters to the great political party of which he is the head, President Taft returned to Washington today from Cincinnati, where he had cast his vote. He had not commented on the result and went directly to the White House, where it was stated that he probably would not break his silence concerning political affairs until his return from Panama.

Disappointed as is the President, at the loss of the house of representatives to the Democrats, his political advisers are planning their hopes to the fact that a three-month session of the present Republican majority in both houses of congress is about to begin.

WILL CROWD PROGRAM.

It is known that into that brief period the administration intends to crowd as much of its legislative program as there seems to be the remotest chance of enactment.

Much of the proposed legislation which will be urged on congress in the President's forthcoming message will be of a progressive nature, and it is expected that the President's conduct with a Democratic house and a Republican senate serving under a Republican President, will attract wide attention.

The first session, which will convene in a little more than a month hence, is practically committed to tariff revision by reason of yesterday's results.

TIMOTHY O'BRIEN IS DEAD; SEEK RELATIVES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—A telegram from Knoxville, Tenn., to the local police recites the fact that Timothy O'Brien died this morning and asks that his four sons, supposed to be here, be notified. The O'Briens are numerous in the community and the newspapers are the medium by which the relatives can be reached. The wire was sent by S. N. Miller.

REPORTS CONDITION OF DEFUNCT BANK'S AFFAIRS

Receiver Edoff Asks Court for Permission to Purchase First Mortgage on Property at Emeryville

Receiver James P. Edoff's report of his operations during August, September and October in winding up the affairs of the defunct California Bank, shows that on the last day of October the cash on hand amounted to $8,154.24, and the total assets to $144,238.15. The outstanding loans—realty and commercial—represented $95,130.55, real estate loans $44,350.00, the profit and loss account $14,414.80, and the receiver's expense fund $5 per cent of the assets or $7,211.90. The liabilities to depositors were $27,670.01. The total cash receipts during the three months, including $39,916.09 on hand July 3, were $23,327.38, and the cash on hand October 31 was $15,327.38.

LOANS ARE REDUCED.

During the period under review loans were reduced in the total amount of $24,000 over the revenue for the three months of $188,190. The net excess of revenue over expense from the beginning of the receivership to October 31 was $24,000. The net revenue for the quarter ended July 31 was $24,000. The net revenue for the quarter ended July 31 was $24,000. The net revenue for the quarter ended July 31 was $24,000.

Under an order made by the superior court in March, 1908, Receiver Edoff sold to the Land and Development Company property and securities of the California Bank and as a consideration he received from the corporation a note and mortgage for $27,600, the former due on June 9, 1909, at the rate of 6 per cent per annum. The mortgage covered eleven pieces of real estate in Emeryville, one of which was not mortgaged, two of which were under first mortgage to the State Savings Bank for $1,000 and each of which were under first mortgage to the Mountain View Cemetery Association for $12,000.

CLAIM REMAINS UNPAID.

Prior to June 1, 1908, according to the report, Receiver Edoff made demand upon the Land and Development Company that the mortgage be paid when due but no part of the principal was ever paid. The claim at the present time amounts in the aggregate to $24,594.25. The Land and Development Company, in view of the fact that the State Savings Bank has acquired an interest in the property under the terms of its mortgage, Receiver Edoff asks permission of the superior court to sell the property of the Mountain View Cemetery Association's interest in the buildings in Emeryville for $22,000, which amount is lying in the bank earning no interest. Notices have been repeatedly mailed to the last known addresses of these depositors to come for their money, but they don't respond. The result of it is that, as receiver, I am forced to keep up the expense of maintaining an office for the purpose of accommodating these delinquent depositors.

It appears to him, therefore, that if he could purchase the mortgage held by the Mountain View Cemetery Association

Minority Leader
Sees Democratic
Majority of 50

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Nov. 9.—Champ Clark, minority leader in the House of Representatives, when advised last night that the Democrats would probably control the next House, predicted that the Democratic majority would be fifty.

"The landslide," said Clark, "is attributed directly to the tariff and the fight on the rules in the House. The rules split the Republican party and the tariff bill coming so soon after, caused dissatisfaction throughout the country."

Clark predicted his re-election in the Ninth district by 5,000 votes.

"I am an avowed candidate for speaker of the House of Representatives," said Congressman Clark, "and I hope to be elected."

at a reasonable discount he could employ the funds in his possession to secure an advance that they would earn for the depositors of the California Bank the amount of interest now being earned, in addition to increasing the security for the note and mortgage of $23,250 now held by him as receiver against the Land and Development Company property.

MARGIN OF SECURITY.

To this end the receiver has agreed with the Mountain View Cemetery Association, subject to the approval and confirmation of the superior court, to purchase the note and mortgage at a discount of 75 per cent and the transaction would involve the payment of $23,250.80.

The property which the California Bank would thus acquire is appraised at about $90,000, which would leave the receiver a margin of security amounting to $27,600.85.

PLEASED WITH CONDITION.

In an interview, Receiver Edoff said this morning:

"At the beginning of the receivership the California Bank owed to depositors $1,096,856.44. Since then I have paid out $750,680.77, which leaves a balance of $346,175.67. To meet this I have assets in my possession which promise to realize $116,103.74. I expect, however, to reduce the actual loss to depositors in the final wind-up to somewhere from $170,000 to $200,000. The estate will thus yield about 75 cents on the dollar, as I promised it would do when I accepted the receivership. Of this amount 65 per cent has been paid. Only 10 per cent remains. The property now in my possession represents chiefly real estate. Naturally it will be a slower process to realize on this 10 per cent than it has been on the 65 per cent paid out. It is my intention, however, to declare small dividends as quickly as the cash in my hands will justify."

GIVES EXAMPLE.

"For example: Whenever the cash in hand amounts to $25,000 it will enable me to declare a 3 per cent dividend. It is my aim to get the money collected into the hands of depositors as quickly as possible."

"Now I want to tell you something about this receivership that will probably surprise you. I have in this office some 2400 unmailed for checks drawn in favor of depositors representing the amount due to them on dividends running from No. 1 to No. 11, and aggregating $22,000, which amount is lying in the bank earning no interest. Notices have been repeatedly mailed to the last known addresses of these depositors to come for their money, but they don't respond. The result of it is that, as receiver, I am forced to keep up the expense of maintaining an office for the purpose of accommodating these delinquent depositors."

DEMOCRATS SURE TO CONTROL NEXT HOUSE

Seven Republicans Lose Their Seats in New York and Bourbons Make Gains in Eight States

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—That the next House of Representatives will be controlled by the Democrats was indicated by returns received up to 11 o'clock last night. The Democrats gained from the Republicans seats in Congress in eight states.

In New York, seven Republican seats were secured by the Democrats. In Maryland, Massachusetts, North Carolina, each, the Republicans lost two seats. Losses are definitely known to have been sustained in Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri and Ohio.

The known Democratic gain up to 11 o'clock was eighteen seats, offset by two Republican gains from the Democrats, one each in New York and Pennsylvania. Reports received from other states indicate that the Democrats will have a large margin to assure them the twenty-two seats necessary to give them control of the House, two Democratic gains previously having been reported in Maine.

GAIN IN OKLAHOMA.

In Oklahoma returns indicated that the Democrats probably gained two seats, due apparently to the operation of the so-called grandfather clause, which barred the negro Republican voters from voting.

At Democratic headquarters in New Jersey it was declared that the Democrats in that state would hold eight seats, making a gain of five.

Democrats in West Virginia had gained in three districts. Missouri showed one known, with three probable Democratic gains, while in Iowa and Illinois the returns indicated the Democratic gains would total six.

In North Carolina returns indicated Democratic gains probably would increase to three.

A big surprise came from Wisconsin when the Republican committee conceded the election of Victor L. Berger, Social-Democrat, to Congress from the Fifth district, which is now held by the Republicans.

Incomplete returns in election of a few cents to several hundreds of dollars and many of them are due out to well-known persons. I have gone to considerable personal expense to notify these depositors that if they check in here to be delivered to them on call, but it has all been in vain. Since the beginning of the receivership I have issued over 40,000 checks and those that have been cashed I now have in my possession, so that in the event any depositor claims that he has not received his dividend I can instantly produce the cashed check bearing his signature on the back of it. But what I am most concerned about now is to get rid of these uncalled-for checks, so that I can reduce the expenses of the receivership by closing up the office and saving the money for the benefit of the depositors.

CHICKEN "SHOWER"
FOR THIS LUCKY MAN

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Nov. 9.—A new form of festivity was planned for William Coleman, a wealthy merchant, seized a pistol early this morning and opened fire on his family.

He killed his wife and son, Cline, 4 years old; wounded another son, Felton, 9 years old, fired several shots which went wild, at his two little girls, and then blew out his own brains.

The surviving members of the family can give no clear idea of the tragedy, but they insist that Wallace was subject to nightmare, and that he began shooting while in a state of madness following an attack.

Wallace went home from a lodge meeting late last night, and immediately retired. About 3 o'clock the children were awakened by wild shouting in their father's room, and found their mother dead and father standing over her apparently a raving maniac. As the children entered Wallace began to utter unintelligible cries and to shoot at the little ones, wounding Felton and killing Cline.

The other children fled, and then Wallace turned the weapon on himself.

The family physician says that Wallace has been afflicted with nightmare for months, and frequently when aroused from one of his seizures he would be in a state of mania for several minutes.

"The doctor asked me if I ate much meat. I shivered at the question." "You should have told him the truth about your diet." "Aw! he was just trying to find out if I'm wealthy."—Washington Herald.

TWO MADE ILL. BY PTOMAIN POISON

Clerk Stricken After Eating of Oyster Cocktail Revived
With Difficulty.

R. H. Courtney, a clerk, residing at the Windsor hotel, ate a oyster cocktail at about 10:30 o'clock last night, to stimulate him while watching the election returns, and was almost immediately taken very ill with excruciating pains in the stomach. Friends took him to the receiving hospital, where Chief Surgeon Halpin diagnosed the case as ptomaine poisoning and gave heroic treatment.

After the operation Courtney was so weak that it was necessary for him to remain at the hospital the remainder of the night. He was discharged as cured this forenoon.

Another victim of ptomaine was K. Dietrich, a confederator residing at 81 Myrtle street. He ate a quantity of old smoked tongue about 5 o'clock last evening and after spending a night in terrible pain went to the receiving hospital early this forenoon for relief, which was promptly given.

ELECTION BETTING HEAVY IN SOUTH

Enormous Sum Put Up On the Candidates in City of Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—Fetting on various phases of the election in this city totaled an enormous sum and showed a widespread interest in the result of the governorship fight. While no actual count of the money that "choked hands" could possibly be obtained owing to a large percentage of the wagers being in private hands, indication can be had by the betting at Tom Corbett's alone, where almost $100,000 was placed on the result.

The betting in the main was upon the fight for the governorship, the three candidates—Bell, Johnson and Wilson, all flouting according to the individual interest of the speculators.

The Bell followers placed most of the money on the majority, which he would carry San Francisco until they had practically decided to leave betting by a heavy plurality demanded by the majority of different opinion.

Early in the betting a few wagers were made that Johnson would carry San Francisco. This money, however, quickly disappeared and for the first few days even money was bet that Bell would carry the city by 2500.

The Johnson men concentrated on the general result of the election, maintaining the odds of 2 to 1.

The followers of Still Wilson also made their favorite an active agent in the future, and a talk of many voters for the Socialist candidate caused a lively interest in speculating upon the number of ballots he would poll in the state. Even money was at first was bet that Wilson would not get 25,000 votes. The Wilson money began to come fast at this point, and the markets were driven up to 20 to 1, then to 35,000 and finally to 40,000.

NORTH DAKOTA

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 9.—According to returns received today, the Republicans have carried every office except that of Governor, although by greatly reduced majorities compared with two years ago. The Republicans carried the re-election of Governor Burke, Democrat.

Hanna and Helgeson, Republican congressmen, win by big majorities. The Legislature is now overwhelmingly Republican.

Bell Concedes His Defeat at the Polls

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Theodore A. Bell gave out the following statement today:

"The returns indicate that I have been defeated for Governor. I have congratulated Mr. Johnson and tendered my best wishes for a successful administration.

"My defeat can be laid to the doors of San Francisco and Alameda counties. I have not permitted myself to feel any personal disappointment over the result, but my heart does go out to my friends who made such loyal sacrifices in my behalf. For their unselfish devotion to my cause, I shall ever remain grateful.

"Let me again assure them that at no time during the fight did I enter into any alliance or obligations that I could not publish to the world. I regard my defeat simply as a result of the overwhelming Republican sentiment in the State. My splendid vote in the interior is a testimonial of friendship and confidence that I can never forget."

Accused Embezzler Scott Changes Plea to Guilty

PERCEVAL R. SCOTT, the young Englishman who is charged in the criminal department of the Superior Court with felony embezzlement, appeared this forenoon before Judge Everett J. Brown and changed his plea of not guilty to one of guilty. The court will pronounce judgment in his case Friday morning. The crime which Scott will be punished for was committed while he was employed as a teller in the First National Bank of Berkeley. The amount he embezzled, according to the information, was $38,521, and the date it was appropriated was July 11, 1910.

Shortly before his arrest Scott instituted suit in the Superior Court for a divorce from his wife, accusing her of desertion and charging that she eloped to China with an army officer. He declared that after she left him he received a letter from her in Hongkong saying that if he would send her money she would return to him. He sent her money—$500, his complaint set forth—but she failed to come back. About a fortnight after Scott was granted an interlocutory decree Mrs. Scott returned home and forthwith filed a motion in the Superior Court to tax the interlocutory decree set aside on the ground that she had never deserted Scott, that he knew all along what she was doing, that she never deserted him and was never sent to him and that the divorce was obtained by fraud. This motion is still pending.

ALLEGES CRUELTY IN SUIT FOR SEPARATION

Extreme cruelty and desertion are alleged by Freda G. Schwindelau in her suit for a divorce from Theodore W. Schwindelau, filed this morning in the Superior Court. The couple were married in March, 1904, and a month afterwards, the wife alleges, Schwindelau threatened to throw her out of the house they occupied at Sixth and Clay streets, Oakland, and told her that unless she went to work and earn money for him to spend she would have to go home to her father.

Revised Returns on State Legislature Elceting Senators

ASKS DIVORCE ON DESERTION GROUNDS

Agnes J. Warren brought suit this forenoon in the Superior Court for a divorce from William J. Warren, who, she alleged, deserted and abandoned her and their minor child in April, 1907. The couple were married in San Francisco in November 1902, and lived in Oakland.

SEEKS SEPARATION ON GROUND OF DESERTION

Desertion is the ground upon which J. Arthur Jenkins instituted suit this morning in the Superior Court for a divorce from Willie M. Jenkins, whom he married at Cumberland, Md., in April, 1906. Jenkins says that his wife left him without cause in November, 1909.

MINNESOTA

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 9.—Amolphus Frederick, Republican, defeated James Gray, Democrat, for governor by an old-time majority of more than 50,000. For three years the elections prior to this the late John A. Johnson, Democrat, carried the state by overwhelming majorities.

The legislature is Republican and all office-holding candidates for congress have been elected. Congressman Hammond, Democrat, is the only one of that party to win.

The Lesson of the Election.

Disappointing as the returns are, they clearly show one thing—that President Taft is the leader of the Republican party. The effort to displace him as the official head of the party, like the effort to repudiate the time-honored principles of Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and McKinley, has proved a disastrous failure. It has wrecked the party in many places in this campaign, but it has impressed a useful lesson upon Republican leaders, no matter to what faction they belong.

Success cannot be attained by making Republican platforms in Kansas, Iowa and Wisconsin flatly contradict the Republican platforms in Ohio, New York and Massachusetts. The party cannot stand for different things in different places. Its purpose must be definite and coherent and the same, generally speaking, in all sections of the Union. It is the real national party of the republic and it cannot split into warring factions diverse in principle and contradictory in purpose and expect to win. Public confidence can neither be gained nor retained in that way.

Republicans must get together, pool their issues, soothe their animosities and array themselves on ground that will give standing room for all believers in the general principles of Republican policy if the scepter of authority is not to pass into Democratic hands at the next Presidential election, with the deplorable consequences that followed the Democratic victories of 1890 and 1892.

In the closing days of the campaign Colonel Roosevelt invaded Ohio, Connecticut and Massachusetts. In each state he made personal attacks on the Democratic candidate for Governor, attacks which were deprecated by the local Republican leaders and openly repudiated by the leading Republican journals. All three of the candidates assailed by the ex-President were elected, a result that must be regarded as a rebuke to the offensive personalities in which Colonel Roosevelt indulged. In New York the attempt to smirch the character of John A. Dix, the Democratic candidate for Governor, proved to be a boomerang. It lost the Republican candidate thousands of votes. The great body of American voters are in favor of fair play and decency in debate.

The one ray of sunshine in the Eastern election returns is the election of a Republican Governor in Tennessee. But his election is not a straight Republican victory, as he was the candidate of a fusion between a bolting Democratic organization and the Republicans. By this arrangement political control will remain in Democratic hands, even with a Republican presiding as Governor.

The Big Stick turns up this morning in the fizzle.

While a foregone conclusion, the re-election of Judges Melvin and Sloss to the supreme bench is extremely gratifying. It proves that the California voters appreciate the value of character, integrity and learning in the judiciary. Alameda county gave Melvin and Sloss 10,000 majority over their highest Democratic competitor, a proof that the voters of this county could not be misled by false accusation and appeals to prejudice and ignorance.

What the Election Returns Show.

The disasters which have overwhelmed the Republican party in the Eastern and Central States illustrate the folly of dissension and dividing in the face of the enemy. The Republican party went into the battle split up in embittered factions. On the other hand, the Democrats closed up ranks and presented a more united front than they have been able to present in twelve years. Bad as the Republican defeat is, the wonder is that it was not worse.

In places the insurgents helped the Democrats and other places the stalwarts gave them a lending hand. That is shown by the returns from a dozen States. In Iowa, for instance, Governor Carroll, who belongs to the regular wing, was scratched mercilessly by the insurgents, and some of the insurgent candidates for Congress were knifed by angered stalwarts. The common enemy profited by defections from both wings of the Republican party.

Roosevelt's fight on the old guard in New York, (putting aside the merits of the quarrel) has lost the Republican party several members of Congress. It defeated J. Sloat Fassett in the Elmira district and Representative Millington in the Onondaga district. The old guard cut Fassett and the Roosevelt faction cut Millington. In Roosevelt's home district, Congressman Cocks was dragged into the quarrel between the ex-President and the old guard bosses and has lost his seat to a Tammany Democrat. Herbert Parsons, Roosevelt's chief lieutenant in Manhattan Borough, has been overwhelmingly defeated—beaten because of the quarrel in the Republican ranks.

In New Jersey the Democrats put up a candidate of exceptional ability and purity of character in Dr. Woodrow Wilson, and the Republicans faced him with a good candidate but a divided house. A stunning defeat is the consequence.

The same division was apparent in Ohio. Faction fighting raged in every corner of the State, the cross purposes being emphasized by the speeches of ex-Senator Foraker and ex-Secretary of the Interior Garfield. Both men supported the same ticket, but they represented factions bitterly opposed to each other, and their utterances on the stump were tinged with the bitterness of irreconcilable differences. What is the result? The Democrats have not only re-elected Governor Harmon, but have made Congressional gains and will elect a Democrat to succeed Senator Dick. Both Republican factions suffer in the common defeat.

In Indiana Senator Beveridge was a candidate for re-election on a platform which by implication repudiated the Republican candidates for Congress. There was retaliation at the polls, and both sides are enveloped in disaster.

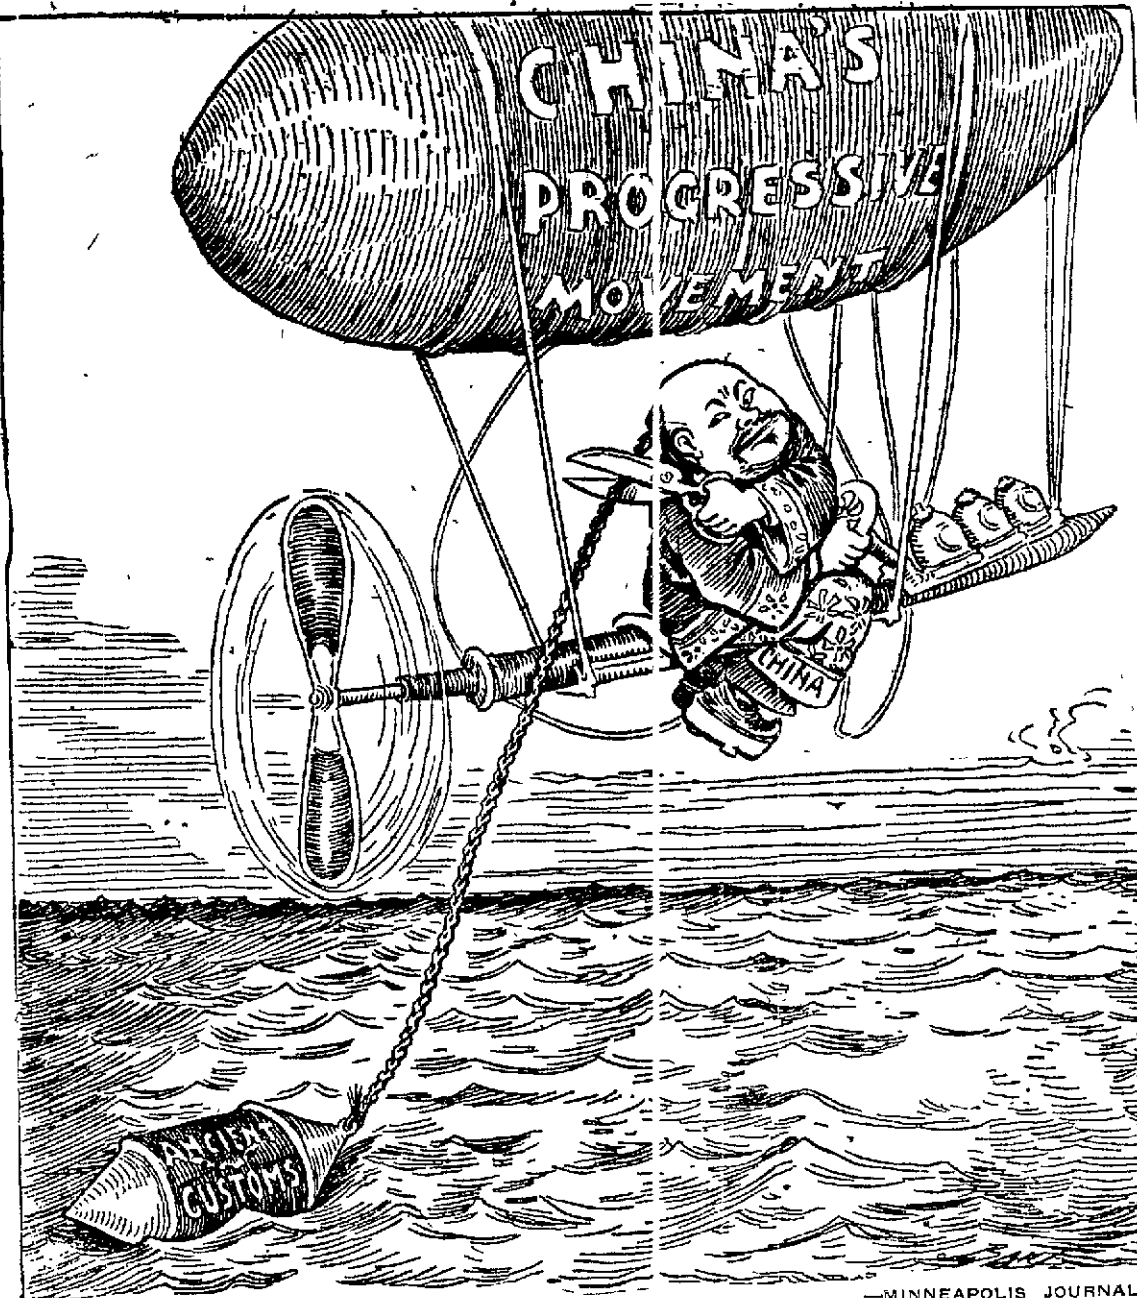

The same thing is visible in the returns from Illinois. Republican knifing has accomplished Republican defeat. The party has been disciplined for its own follies and errors. The Democrats have gained control of the House of Representatives, and have made such gains in the Senate as to imperil Republican control of that body. In its historic strongholds the supremacy of the Republican party is shaken and challenged. If this situation is to be mended so that a successful fight for the Presidency can be made two years hence, the resentments within the Republican party must be placated, harmony restored and unity of action brought about.

All the Pacific States stand firm in the Republican column, now that Nevada has been redeemed. This will help San Francisco to get the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The Democratic victory in New Jersey is not easily accounted for. The Colonel did not go speech-making in New Jersey.

The Democratic victory extended as far west as Colonel Roosevelt went on his speaking tour. He went into Iowa especially to make a speech in favor of the Republican candidate for Congress in a district strongly Republican. The returns disclose that an unknown young man has been elected on the Democratic ticket. Even in Kansas the new nationalism and the Osawatimie pia form failed to draw votes. The Republican State ticket was elected by a decreased majority, and two Republican candidates for Congress—one a standpatter and the other an insurgent—went down to defeat.

History has repeated itself. Waterloo has followed the return from Elba.

Definition of 'Fear'

The exact definition of the word "fear" is something in which practically all men are interested because all men have experienced it in one form or another.

It was Marshall Ney, of France, who said "A coward is he who boasts that he is not afraid"—and Marshall Ney was a man who never boasted and never was afraid.

Some parents insist upon compelling their children to go into dark rooms alone in order to cure them of the oft-times prevalent terror of the darkness.

It may be childish in a way and yet there are countless numbers of grown persons who have a choking sensation in the throat and a fluttering of the heart when they are left alone in the dark. It is silly of course, and yet there are many brave men who would charge a cannon who cannot help that they take the same feeling.

There is another saying that "it takes a brave man to be a coward" and in many cases that statement is certainly true. It is true in battle where the bravest man is the one who dares to run away because he is afraid. The others are probably just as much scared as he is but they are not brave enough to admit it.

Many a man has turned to meet his foes face to face and stood there with a great exhibition of nerve because he was too frightened to move and too paralyzed with fear even to speak.

It is difficult to say just what courage is and just what cowardice is, but certainly we all know the meaning of fear—that unreasoning, subconscious feeling that there is someone hiding in the dark corner of the room. We are all children when it comes to that—if we have any nerves at all.

Triumphant Minorities

By REV. GEORGE W. WHITE,
Pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

In these election days minorities are supposed to decide everything. Temporarily they do, but not in the long run.

In God's arithmetic it is often the minority which counts. He declares that "One shall chase a thousand" and "two shall put ten thousand to flight." This is on the principle of the oft-quoted statement that "One with God, is a majority."

No cause is settled until it is settled right. In the end, righteousness will prevail. Good men can outwait and outlast the day of victory by being time-servers and temporizing with evil, showing lack of faith in God.

In the case of God's contest with the detestable Midianites who had corrupted the land until God would sweep them out of it, he a ray of 32,000 men was twice shifted by Divine direction until only 300 remained.

Napoleon once sentimentally said that "God is always on the side of the heavy battalions," but his battles did not always prove it. However, at Waterloo, Victor Hugo said it was God, not the English, fighting against Napoleon. In this case, it was on the side of the heavy battalions.

In God's work, it is God, not man, that counts. In our day we are inclined to the opposite doctrine. We have little faith for success unless all the human conditions are just right. This may explain much of our failure to accomplish large things, because we discount the Divine element in bringing about results.

God's work is not necessarily religious. It is whatever uplifts humanity. Whatever does that brings humanity nearer to God.

The battle in all religions comes before the time for a battle. The people have to be educated to right ideas and standards before they will vote the right way.

Whereas in England and America in America, did not vote down slavery, they cried it down. The voting was against slavery, but it was not followed.

It is in this preparatory process that the minority gets its work. In God's attack on the Midianites, under Divine direction, they merely turned on light and set up a shout of faith. These simple agencies turned the foe into confusion and rout.

Evil can never stand before light and truth. Righteousness, the light, can always turn on the light and set up a shout of "The sword of the Lord and of glory." It will rout an army of darkness every time.

Christ said to the little band of unlearned men to whom He had given the commission to take the world, in the face of the arrogant power of the Roman empire, "It is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." They believed it, and He did it. What He did then He will do now if His people will only trust Him and go forward when He calls.

Where are the Lincoln one-cent pieces? The question was asked at a subway ticket office by a man who was endeavoring to find some of the coins to restate himself in the good graces of a small boy whom he had provoked, when these coins first appeared, to give all that came to him as change. For months, he said, he had seen none of the Lincoln pennies, and the boy had thrown out several hints which put him on the lookout, but his lack of success led him to believe that they had been withdrawn from circulation.—New York Tribune.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

The army and navy Republican league held a ratification meeting last night and grew enthusiastic over the recent success at the polls in the late county election. H. T. Smith presided over the laughing, singing, hand-shaking enthusiasts. Assemblyman-Jack McCall sent word through M. D. Hyde that he would defray half of any deficiency which might be found in the funds of the Republican league's campaign.

The Oakland and Alameda saloon men, who have been forming a company for the establishing of an independent brewery have deferred the organization for the reason that they have learned that there is another and similar project under way, in which it is said that J. D. Spradley, James D. Pellan and Amos-Rusch company are interested.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid Society is to have an installation of officers, Sunday afternoon, in St. Lawrence hall.

The ordinance and judiciary committee of the council has decided to defer action on the proposed ordinance for the removal of trees from obstructing the streets. The greater number of the members seemed to feel that it would be better to condemn certain trees as a nuisance and then pass an ordinance providing for their removal.

There was a lively clang and jangle at a meeting of the Oakland Nationalist club in Grand Army hall last night when A. Hoenisch presented resolutions congratulating the farmers' alliance upon the victory it had recently achieved in the west. This raised some and some fell with more than a thud when the resolutions were adopted. This action so incensed J. W. Dutton and some other Republicans, who had opposed the sentiments, that they picked up their hats and fled the place of meeting, perhaps never to return. The others who remained then adjourned.

Mrs. Sadie Farmer, wife of Robert Farmer, an Oakland grocer, has been kidnapped, taking her children and her furniture with her from her home at 1014 Jefferson street where the family has resided for some time. Farmer says he does not know where his wife has gone and that he has been imposed upon. No clew has as yet been found to the men who, yesterday, burglarized the home of Mrs. Levi Stevens in Fruitvale of about a $1000.

The ladies' aid society of the first Congregational church announces a series of nights with Warren of Chicago. The coming instructor will discuss the true and false in education.

WHAT THERE IS IN LUCK

Since members of the family of the late "Lucky" Baldwin have engaged lawyers, and their estate is being made the subject of what may prove to be endless litigation, it would seem that Baldwin's greatest luck was that he died without having to make an equitable division of his possessions.

Indeed, fortunes like that of "Lucky" Baldwin should be very hard to distribute equitably. Perhaps any man's fortune would be. If those who really earned it were to have a fair share in it, there might always be many thousands to inherit rather than the individual or the group of individuals acknowledged by the law.

The Baldwin case is further complicated by the appearance of "common law" relatives, who will not be silenced, and it begins to appear that none of the providential luck of the late Mr. Baldwin is to be inherited by his descendants, no matter what else they may inherit.

The ancient philosopher who warned men against belonging to either the high or the low classes—with respect, particularly, to wealth—because in one case they must be envied, and in the other—was plainly right.

We doubt if "Lucky" Baldwin were really lucky, after all. Perhaps the only really lucky man is one who knows what he needs is the only true foundation of happiness, and that the rest is a matter of the heart and mind, and those attainments which are within the reach of all.—St. Louis Times.

ANTICIPATION and FULFILLMENT

The housewife who complained that she "had longed for ten years to possess a brass bed, but now that she can get one she discovers that she wants a Napoleon bed in mahogany," has unwittingly summed up the whole phenomenon of human life. Practically all of our pleasures come from anticipation. Realization is much less colorful and pleasurable.

The woman who had pictured for years a nice solid brass bed standing on her rose-tinted carpet beside the mahogany dressing table, and had warmed her spirit in the rosy dreams of anticipation, has practically exhausted all the possibilities in the ownership of such a treasure. The treasure itself amounts to much less.

It is so with life. In youth we look forward longly to the day when we can buy all the chocolate creams that we can eat, but on arriving at that delectable estate we discover that very few satisfy us. Anticipation dwelt upon a big round seal muff, but realization shows us that round muffs are passe, and that, besides, milk is the thing. We dream of an automobile—that before it is realized the flying machine appears on the horizon. Desire is much; realization is little. Give us our anticipations.—Detroit News.

Apparently every new invention brings with it some evil. "The British Medical Journal" points out that among distinctly modern diseases are the poisoning produced by the fumes of calcium carbide of acetylene; the headache, dyspepsia, cardiac failure and sensory disturbances traceable to the manufacture and use of aniline dyes; the frothing of the blood, known as embolism disease, which follows too rapid decompression in working the foundations of bridges; the functional nervous known as telegraphers' cramp, resulting from the use of the Morse key, and the numerous affections of the skin, lung, digestive tract and eyes due to irritation by organic or inorganic dusts of industrial origin.

"The Argentine Republic," says the Piquet Press, "has found a customer for its beef on this side of the ocean. The Argentine government, which was asked to take ten thousand tons, has ordered a sample lot of seven hundred tons to be delivered in December. The great American beef companies did not show any activity in the direction of securing an order from Australia, because of the duty difficulties, preferring to employ their best efforts in transporting their surplus of beef to England, where the customs regulations made it easy to do business."

The members of the Anti-Lightward Club organized by the girls of a Kansas high school for the purpose of boycotting the young men who slow down the progress of the members of a society organized in Chicago some years ago to buy the queer name of "We Pay Our Own Way Club." The originator of the movement, speaking of it, said at the time: "The members of this body are young women who work for their living. Nearly all have escorts to and from their places of business. We like the company and don't wish to receive a lot of time twice a day insisting on paying our own car fare. So we have organized and now the 'We Pay' plan is paying our own way. We gain time for conversation, keep our independence and the boys save their nickels without running the chance of being called stingy."

The death of David B. Hill recalled to a newspaper man the story of John's first overing in the summer of 1910. His term as Governor the newspaper man, having filed their story in the Bureau, had retired for a chat to a telegraph office where they were waiting for a Spang's story, when, in the course of conversation, told a story which included a conversation with the Governor. Possibly to show the intimacy the recounted dialogue was punctuated with expressions like "Dave" said I. "You don't say so, Dave" etc. After the man had gone, one of the correspondents asked "Mark, is that man a relative of Hill's?" and when he received a negative answer, said "Then he's a liar—the man doesn't live who calls Hill 'Dave'."

"Do you think it right to call a man a liar?" "Depends. If he is a liar, the question is one of discretion merely."—Philadelphia Ledger.

It seems as if people try harder to be fools than they will try to be anything else.

Either a man pays rent and wishes he owned his house or he owns it and wishes he paid rent.

A man can put his stocks and bonds in a deposit vault for safe keeping, but there's no place where he can keep his reputation out of danger.

Empty heads are the easiest turned.

Better give away your time than spend it foolishly.

It is usually the "good fellow" who has the most bad habits.

A widow's second matrimonial play is apt to be a sure-thing game.

As a matter of fact the majority of people would like to be honest.

The principles of a good many men run to inclinations and then stop.

Few women are as handsome as they think men ought to think they are.

It's tough on a man who is too lazy to work and can't get elected to office.

Two may be able to live as cheaply as one—if the one doesn't have to pay alimony.

While it is well to meet your obligations promptly, it is better to have no obligations.

If a man is honest with himself he can be depended upon to give his neighbors a square deal.

A girl's first love affair soon becomes an epidemic.

A woman's trained skirt knogs enough to avoid a holdie.

Sticking plaster is the kind that doesn't fall from the ceiling.

The boy who calls too much angel cake never feels very angelic.

It is better to misunderstand some people than to understand them.

Oh, well, if hubby doesn't like wife's new fall hat, he can pay for another.

A lot of sentiment boils down very quickly to cross.

TOO FREE WITH HIS AFFECTIONS

Young Business Man Takes Too Much for Granted.

Considerable excitement has prevailed in social circles of late because of the actions of a popular young attorney. Recent developments go to prove that the business man, Alfred H. Kennedy, whose offices are in the Banning block, has been too free with his affections and has in consequence fallen out of favor not only with the girls of the younger set but with their mothers as well. Kennedy's difficulty seems to have been that he thought every woman he met was pining for his affections and so he bestowed his love upon them all. And complications resulted.

About a year ago Kennedy came to Oakland from New York. He had letters of introduction which at once admitted him to the most exclusive social circles, and apparently he was well liked. About the first of June Kennedy is said to have become unlike his usual cheerful carefree self. He became more serious and into the arms of his mother, friends that he had decided to marry and settle down. At first they did not believe he was in earnest but later decided that he had married on the brain as he talked of it all the time and was always talking of his friends to pick out some nice girl and set up housekeeping. The men to whom Kennedy talked most freely were not sure that he was interested in any particular girl.

As subsequent events proved, he was not. About the time the "marriage bee" struck Kennedy he became acquainted with a pretty young woman whose home was in Piedmont. From the first he was present in his attentions, but always a little queer. He finally asked her to marry him, but she pointedly refused. The wedding could not be until, after January 1st, 1911. The girl not wanting to appear over his shoulder, he had to wait until his lack of interest in an immediate marriage though she thought it strange as he appeared to be financially well able to be married at once. She knew from what he had told her that he had not a cent of money and that he had to live on his own occupancy. When she asked him if they would live there later on he acted most peculiarly and said "No indeed, we're going to have a little home all our own but with a view to waiting until we can get a house."

Kennedy's engagement to this young lady was broken in August because of misunderstandings over their future plans. She had thought he would give up his law but he was apparently as devoted to one of her friends as he had been to her. Before long he asked this girl to share his home with him but was refused because of his too recent engagement to her friend.

This was but the beginning of Kennedy's sentimental adventures however. He made violent love to one girl after another meeting with about an equal number of "yes" and "noes" but for some unexplained reason his periods of engagements were always short. His ex-fiances refused to discuss him—always turning off any reference to him with "Oh Alfred's crazy" or "He isn't worth considering seriously." His all pipe dreams.

Last week after Kennedy had tried to induce a married woman to get a divorce and marry him next year the truth slipped out of his mouth. When Kennedy slipped out of his mouth the truth was something of Kennedy's "near" history. He had been in a "near" history of his sweethearts had been willing to divulge. The clever little woman led him on to talk of what he would do for her and made particular inquiries into the home he said he was building. At first he refused to take her to see the house but when she insisted he set a certain Sunday afternoon for the trip.

Apparently Kennedy was perfectly sane but the woman who was playing detective did not understand why he had led her to Diamond street near Fortieth and Broadway took her through a house alongside of a big sign which said "Kenny's" and when Kennedy slipped out of his mouth the truth was something of Kennedy's "near" history. He had been in a "near" history of his sweethearts had been willing to divulge. The clever little woman led him on to talk of what he would do for her and made particular inquiries into the home he said he was building. At first he refused to take her to see the house but when she insisted he set a certain Sunday afternoon for the trip.

Now that the whole story has leaked out Kennedy's chances of getting a society maid to keep house for him under any circumstances appear to be rather slim as the opinion prevails that he had been proposing under false pretenses.

The young women of the bay district are to be commended upon their lack of interest in such a man's "flirtations." No sensible girl is going to bestow her love and affections upon a man who has been so free with his affections. Kennedy's future depends upon whether or not he should win a home on New Year's eve.

There are thousands of young men old men women lawyers stenographers preachers policemen doctors and laboring men who have the same expectations as Mr. Kennedy but they have not lost their heads over the fact that some one will receive an A. T. T. Park house and lot on December 31st. We are all living in hope and may a deserving person be the lucky one.

Characters on Street.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Chief of Police Seymour encouraged by the commendation which has come to his office as the result of the present absence of law and crime in the community has issued orders to the company commanders to be careful to instruct their details to keep unbecomable persons off the street and to look out for crooks.

The chief also calls attention to various ordinances in his part as follows: Company Commanders. UNCLE SAM WILL SELL ARMY POST

Historic Frontier Property at Fort Davis Soon to Pass
Into Private Hands.

FORT DAVIS, Tex., Nov. 9.—The sale by the Federal government of the Fort Davis military reservation embracing 291 acres which is to take place November 21st will mark the passing into private hands one of the most noted and historic of the old frontier army posts.

It was at Fort Davis that Lawton Shafter and many other army officers and men won distinction as Indian fighters. The post was abandoned more than twenty years ago. It is situated in a picturesque part of the upper Rio Grande border region of Texas. Within its limits the reservation is bounded on one side by precipitous cliffs. It was from these rocky heights that bands of Indians frequently made attacks upon the garrison of troops. To reach the top of the cliffs the soldiers would have to make a long detour and the time that was lost in doing this usually enraged the Indians to get away from the spot before an attack could be made upon them.

The buildings that are located upon the Fort Davis reservation are in a good state of preservation. The stone and adobe officers' residences and headquarters building can be placed in good repair at little expense. The old barracks building is still standing. Many of the officers' residences are occupied by private families during the summer. The reservation is situated at an altitude of 5000 feet and the climate is ideal in summer. The little town of Fort Davis sits on a just outside of the limits of the reservation. It has long been noted as a health and summer resort.

To what use the reservation will be put after it has been sold to private parties is not known. The 291 acres will be divided by the government into thirty lots each consisting of nearly ten acres. These lots will be sold by auction to the highest bidder. It is expected that the purchasers of the buildings and land may convert them into summer homes of health and pleasure resorts.

PENSION ATTORNEY

FACES FRAUD CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—The United States Marshal's deputies this morning arrested Frank R. Wilson, a pension attorney, indicted by the federal grand jury for obtaining money under false pretenses. The complainant is Charles L. Green, a soldier at Alcatraz entitled to a minor pension, who claims to have given Wilson a check for $500 to look out for his interests.

He alleges that the attorney did nothing for him.

George Poulos Arrested by the Police After Wounding His Opponent.

SAN FRANCISCO Nov. 8.—A quarrel, the result of a quick word on the part of one of two lifelong friends, a fist fight, and a slash of steel, was responsible for the injury of John Poulos of Fourth and Dolson streets at 3 o'clock this morning.

The arrest of his companion, George Poulos, on a charge of assault to murder, was, and such fight, too.

Police Officer O'Brien and Meagher found the two men locked in a deadly struggle. Poulos had been stabbed in the left side, and he was conveyed to the Harbor Emergency hospital.

Poulos was booked at the Southern station, a knife being entered on the blotter as evidence against him.

BAREFOOT COUNTESS WHO SHOCKED
NEWPORT WILL DANCE HERE TONIGHT

COUNTESS THAMARA DE SWIRSKY, who will appear in Oakland this evening.

The widely-heralded Russian barefoot dancer, Countess Thamar de Swirsky, is to make her initial appearance at the Macdougall theater tonight and considerable interest attaches to her engagement. By reason of the efforts of her wonderful art that have come here from Newport and because of the criticism and the customs and habits of the social elite in this most exclusive center.

"They were all lovely when I was there," said Miss de Swirsky, in speaking of the conditions, and they wanted to learn how to dance as I do, but after I went away they said things. They were jealous. Oh, so jealous, and such things, too.

A complete program, including all of the spectacular and daring dances made famous by the distinguished artist, has been arranged, and a noteworthy feature of the performance will be the Tanagra, originated by the Countess and pronounced by the critics as the very acme of beauty and grace.

The Countess de Swirsky, a woman of the same in every detail as those used by the dancer in the past, a symphony orchestra, under the direction of Herman Poll, formerly conductor for Henry W. Savage's opera company in New York, should contribute much to the success of the production.

Due to the limit of time allowed for the dance, the Countess de Swirsky, tonight's performance will be the only one given in Oakland.

Attorney George E. de Golia has filed the following complaint:

In Re Charges vs. Police Officer Edwin C. Summers.

"Comes now Geo. E. de Golia and alleges:

"That he is a resident and taxpayer in the city of Oakland.

"That on November 4, 1910, Police Officer Edwin C. Summers did unlawfully and without a warrant so to do, and in rude and offensive way, and with force and violence, seize affiant by the arm while affiant was quietly standing at the northeast corner of Twelfth and Broadway streets, and in a rude and insulting tone declare affiant was under arrest, and did then and there unlawfully arrest affiant, and did with unnecessary force, and in an offensive manner, push affiant up Broadway street to Thirteenth street despite the fact that affiant made no resistance and agreed to go quietly and peacefully with said officer when requested, all to the great humiliation of affiant.

"Affiant further alleges upon his information and belief that said police officer, Summers, has unlawfully committed various other acts insulting many citizens, threatening arrest in an offensive and unjustifiable manner.

"Wherefore affiant prays that a time and place be fixed so that affiant can present evidence in support hereof.

It bears close kinship to the remarkable tablets found not long ago by an explorer in the ruins along the Balsas river, Mexico, and in fact, the idol found in Mexico and many other famous ruins cities in Mexico.

KIDNAPING OF GIRL MAY END IN WEDDING

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Nov. 9.—According to the police, it is likely that the kidnaping case last week of Susan Alexander, 15 years old, who was carried off by Joseph Invello, 18 years old, will end in a wedding.

The parents of the girl told the district attorney that Invello, who had fled, had agreed to return and marry the girl providing he was not prosecuted. Susan was found in the house of Lawrence McNeill, at Swedeland.

William Heidman who drove the team, and Joseph P. Schell who rowed Invello and the girl across the river, were held in $500 bail for a hearing next Tuesday.

BLINDED WITH ACID

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—Blinded and helpless from the effects of carbolic acid which had been doused into his eyes by an unknown assailant, W. P. Ross of 834 East Fifth street, was attacked with a stiletto by the man who had thrown the acid at Long Beach avenue and East Twenty-second street.

His life was saved by a small wallet filled with papers, into which the point of the weapon was driven, but failed to penetrate. Drizzled by the pain of the acid burning his face and almost unable to see, he wandered about nearly an hour finally making his way to the home of Mr. F. Smith, a friend at 1724 East Twenty-fourth street. He, after temporarily dressing his injuries, accompanied him to the Emergency hospital where the acid burns were properly treated.

WELSH MINERS AND POLICE WAGE BATTLE

CARDIFF, Wales, Nov. 9.—More than a hundred men sustained injuries in a pitched battle between mobs of strikers and the police last night in the disturbed colliery districts where 20,000 miners have quit work. Bands of the strikers in a wild frenzy poured stones in several towns and stormed the colliery buildings. The police attacked the mobs with their batons and were met with a fusillade of stones. The Home Secretary, Winston Churchill, has offered his services as mediator.

Among the prominent speakers present will be Leo S. Rogers, executive president; Rev. Thomas A. Boyer of the First Christian Church; Ralph S. Hawley, county president; Harold J. Covdrey, chairman finance committee; Miss Nelson L. Scribner, state district superintendent; and Miss Maude Gerriog, county missionary superintendent.

Boy Bicyclists to Form Scout Patrol

The first cycle boy scout patrol in this county will be organized Friday in this city by J. W. Griffin, formerly a member of the cycle corps of the English army in the Boer war, who has taken an active interest in the boy scout movement, which has been well launched in the bay region. Many of the boy bicyclists will join the next squad, which will be composed entirely of cycle riders.

According to the present plans of Griffin, the boys will ride many miles on their wheels every week. No definite arrangements have as yet been made for the place of meeting for the first cycle drill.

Among the boys who will join the cyclists are James Middleton, Andrew H. Worsley, Elton Hillon, Andrew H. Worsley, Francis Kennedy, Leslie Stier, Arthur Apostol and Clarence Taylor.

Fremont Rugbyites
Anxious for Game

The Fremont school football team is hard at practice. Debating the hall and work in the gym are being specialized. The team is having a hard time in securing games, as nearly all the Rugby teams about the bay have disbanded for the season. Fremont may secure a date with the Mission High team of San Francisco in the near future.

POACHER MURDERS
PURSUING RANGERVanderbilt Employee Shot Down
by Mountaineer Or Estate.

ASHFORTH, N. C., Nov. 9.—After walking three miles over a mountain trail to save good-bye to his wife and children before he expired, Clayton Davis, a forest ranger, was shot by a poacher in the stomach, falling faintly by the wayside yesterday. It was the second time he had been shot during the day.

While Davis and Will Colburn, an assistant guard, were at work, Davis was shot by a party of poachers on the estate who said they were hunting for deer, and, hearing a rustle in the bushes, supposed there was a deer there and fired. Colburn ran several miles for assistance and on his way back found Davis unconscious. Davis died as he was carried into his home.

Searching parties were flamed today and a man who gave his name as Kearns, a resident of the Mill River section, was arrested. He made no resistance. Kearns said he had shot Davis, mistaking him for a deer.

There has been a feud for years between mountaineers employed by the Vanderbilt as rangers to protect his forests and other mountaineers who largely subsist on wild game. They are able to get by poaching. Numerous threats have been made, and to prevent any more tragedies or forest fires numbers of additional guards were added today.

IOWA OLD MAIDS
ARE PERKING UPHateful Tax Lax Is Causing Widows to Flee, Leaving Field Clear.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 9.—Widows are leaving this state, and spinsters are rejoicing at the prospect of Iowa becoming widowless. Spinsters who had abandoned hope of marital felicity are manifestly perking up. The day is not yet lost. The reason for it all is not that men don't die nor the divorce mills fail to grind, but because a heavy penalty devolves upon the Iowa woman who once has entered the realm of matrimony and diverts afterward to life without it. Every year scores of widows, charming, graceful and pious, lovable, pack their little grips and hasten beyond the two great rivers that form the eastern and western extremities of the state.

It is all because of the hateful tax law, which deprives that widow must pay a 2 per cent tax on all moneys and credits left them by the last will and testament of the late husband. It has been figured out that at the present time of departure of widows from the state it will be but a few years until Iowa has no charming widows unless of course, the grim reaper gets busy with the husbands.

Yet, when one stops to think that the widow who is left a small fortune by the will of her husband is compelled to pay 2 per cent tax on the estate, which is often just enough to carry her in comfort to the end of her days, while rich men, who know all the tricks and devices of tax dodging, may go to invest their money out of the state, escape the law, there comes to a feeling to them that possibly the law is unjust!

An interesting case in point is that of a Cedar Rapids widow who was left $150,000. She liked Cedar Rapids and hoped to spend her remaining days in the old home there enjoying the income from her little fortune. But she was a practical woman as well, and when at the end of the first year she found that she must pay 2 per cent tax on her little fortune she simply pulled up stakes and went to New York City, never to return to Iowa to work.

The case is but one of dozens which occur every year.

WHITE RATS AND ACTORS'

UNION CONSOLIDATED

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—It was announced last night by Samuel Gompers that the White Rats of America and the Actors' National Union had consolidated and had affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. The new organization will be known as the White Rats Actors' Union of America, with a membership of 1,000.

The consolidation took place as the result of a conference after several months of correspondence, about two months ago a tentative agreement was reached and Gompers was appointed arbitrator to settle such question as might arise.

ORIGINAL STORIES
BY TINY AUTHORS

(By JEAN SCUPHAM, assistant editor-in-chief Girls' Aegis.)

The scarlet leaves are dropping now,
From branches dry and bare;
They flutter down from every bough,
For autumn days are here.

The summer roses, too, are gone,
Their stalks are brown and sear;
Dead are the daisies in the lawn,
For autumn days are here.

Chrysanthemums alone outlast
Attract with welcome cheer,
A batch of gold through twilight haze,
For autumn days are here.

Girls' Aegis Proves
Creditable Number

The girls' Aegis, the official paper of the Oakland High school, was distributed among the students of the school yesterday and the boys and girls of that institution have been absorbed in reading the excellent number, which was compiled entirely by the girls of the school, who have worked for weeks on the edition. It contains 52 pages of bright reading matter, and in interesting style the activities of the high school have been described by the different editors. The staff of the Aegis was composed of the following young women: Camille Adams, editor-in-chief; Jean Scupham, assistant editor; Margaret Chevrolet, Marion Miller, Beth Hoyt and Katherine Crellin, associate editors; Margaret Morrison, Caroline Ketcham, Caroline Lovejoy, Jean Scupham, Elsie Spencer, Roxana Welch, Ethel Schellhaus, Eleanor Clark and Corita Jacobs, artists.

Noon Dance Is Held in Gym at High

The regular monthly noon dance of the Oakland High school was held in the high school gymnasium yesterday. Music for the dance was furnished by the school orchestra and about a hundred couples were in attendance. This is the second of the series of dances which have been given at the school. The girls have a dance each week in the gymnasium, but boys are excluded. The new plan has met with much favor in the school.

Fremont Students to Give Vaudeville

On Wednesday evening, November 23, the students of the Fremont High school will give a big vaudeville show in the high school assembly hall. The features will include a rip roaring farce, "The Tajama Quartet" and a "Beauty Chorus." Five other "screaming" acts will also be given.

SEEKS TO BREAK
ECKERT'S WILLFormer Hotel Maid Promises to Cut Into Millions of Dead Man.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Minnie Egan, who quit her place as a maid at the Waldorf-Astoria to become housekeeper for Gen. Thomas T. Eckert, promises to break the terms of his will in an attempt to break the will of the former president of the Western Union that is said to be under consideration by Glendennin Eckert, his younger son. Glendennin was cut off with $50,000 and a life interest in $100,000, while the bulk of the $8,000,000 estate goes to Thomas T. Eckert Jr., his brother.

Miss Egan is not only engaged to marry Thomas Eckert, but she is said to have had a part in the religious differences that are held accountable for the break between the brothers. The housekeeper is a Catholic and after she went to Gen. Eckert's home at West End, N. J., not only Gen. Eckert, but Thomas Eckert embraced that faith. Gen. Eckert's conversion, however, was the result of the influence of his second wife, who had been a Catholic at her life, although he did not identify himself with the Church until after her death. Glendennin Eckert is a Protestant as is William Eckert, a brother of Gen. Eckert, who was left $200,000.

SPITE FENCE CAUSED TROUBLE.

The trouble between the brothers has become more evident with the completion this week of a fence which shuts off all of Gen. Eckert's property from Carleton Terrace, the adjoining property which will be willed by Gen. Eckert to Joanna Eckert, the small daughter of Glendennin. This fence is said to have been the work of Thomas Eckert himself who makes "tinkering" of various sorts one of his hobbies. A favorite comment by Gen. Eckert during the last years of his life, "That's a fine boy, a fine boy, just see all the repairs he has made around the house."

He then got a box and in three days he passed a tape worm 45 feet long. I was Mr. Matt Beck, of Milledgeville, Georgia. I am quite a worker for Cascarets. I use them myself and find them beneficial for most any disease caused by impure blood." Chas. L. Condon, Lewiston, Pa., (Mullin Co.)

Liliuokalani Passes.

HONOLULU, Nov. 9.—Governor Archibald S. Cleghorn, brother-in-law to Queen Liliuokalani and to the late King Kalanikouhi, former royal governor of Oahu and father of the Princess Kaiulani, died of heart failure at his Waikiki residence after a long illness. The body will be buried in the Kalaikouhi tomb along with those of the Princess Kaiulani, his wife, and his daughter, who was during her life the recognized heir apparent to the throne of Hawaii. The funeral will probably be one of state.

Governor Cleghorn was one of the best known residents of Hawaii. A familiar figure on the streets and on whose name cards frequently in Hawaiian history for the last fifty years. He came here as a clerk from Australia, ending in the press but town fifty-nine years ago. He prospered in business and became

TO ALL HIS CREDITORS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—An unusual feature was found in the will of the late Conrad Hafen, filed for probate here. A large part of the $80,000 estate of Hafen, who died October last, consisted of notes and a clause of the will directed that the executors of this, my last will, shall extend the time of payment of any note to me to a date not later than one year from and after my death, whenever the maker shall request them to do so. I do this for the purpose of enabling my creditors to have ample time to pay, as I do not wish anyone to be inconvenienced or hurt by my death.

Besides many bequests to charity and friends, Hafen also gave $8000 to his "faithful housekeeper," Mrs. Marie Busche.

Says Wife of Day Was False

NEW YORK.—When the case of Per-Olof Schmitter against Mary Schmitter was ranked "ready" on the calendar of Justice Putnam's part of the supreme court in Brooklyn yesterday the public got its first news that Captain Schmitter, an army surgeon stationed at Fort Slocum, is suing for absolute divorce. The case will probably be heard before Judge Putnam one day this week.

Mrs. Schmitter, according to her latest statement, will make the defense that she was enticed by a trick in the Albany Hotel in a seemingly compromising position. Mrs. Schmitter has set forth the facts in full in an affidavit made for the purpose of applying for alimony.

Mrs. Schmitter sets forth that she was married to the army surgeon at Claver, Mo., a suburb of St. Louis, on August 11, 1902, and that Captain Schmitter deserted her the following day.

She secured a position in a millinery establishment in St. Louis where she became acquainted with a woman known as Alice Crowley. Mrs. Crowley introduced her to a man she called her "husband," who, she alleged, was Captain Schmitter. She alleged that Captain Schmitter acted as his private secretary at $25 a week.

On April 13 last Crowley, the uncle, Mrs. Crowley and Mrs. Schmitter came to New York and took rooms at the Hotel Albany. Through trickery, Mrs. Schmitter declares, Crowley was admitted to her room and a woman known as Alice Crowley, who was known by the name of Mrs. George W. Gale, declaring that Dunn was an assumed name. At the Normal school she was known by still another name, which the girl refused to disclose.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

SUFFRAGETTES ON WATCH AT THE POLLS

Votes-for-Women Advocates Make Advent in Active Political Arena.

Rich Women to Pose for Charity; Lady Hesketh's Son Missing.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The suffragette made her advent into the active arena of things political when at yesterday's election no less than 41 women responded to the Republican call for home watchers and took up the work despite its many disadvantages. In the worst polling places of the city defiant women held forth with complete index systems.

There were really too many women to enumerate them all, but chief among them were Miss Inez and Miss Vida Milholland, both Vassar graduates and loyal suffragettes. Miss Josephine A. Roche, who has visited in Colorado; Mrs. Nora de Forrest, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch; Miss Elizabeth Ellsworth Cook, Dr. Ann A. Jols, Dr. Perry Heathland, Miss Maude Russell, daughter of Robert G. Russell, and others.

Miss Milholland held forth at No. 802 Second avenue. She watched every voter carefully and challenged one man. He was found, however, but her address of the man challenged was wrong and she gracefully admitted her mistake.

Miss Cook had trouble of her own at No. 11 Bowery. Up to early afternoon she had challenged 33 voters.

Mrs. Gertrude Durcan was stationed at No. 650 Ninth avenue, the "McManus" district. She had more trouble than any one else. She was invited several times to leave the polling place, but each time she showed her credentials and defied any one to put her out.

Miss Josephine A. Roche had a particularly unpleasant assignment at a polling place thickly populated with negroes. She was forced to sit all day alongside of an unkempt negro clerk.

Mrs. Blach and a party of friends went to one of the 44 places in automobiles during the day to see if everything was running smoothly.

To Pose for Charity

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Clarence Mackay has arranged a series of tableaux, through the medium of which women of wealth and social position will depict the progress of their sex to a brilliant audience in the Plaza ballroom on January 11, while they incidentally fill the coffers of the Y. M. C. A.

The tableaux will be under the supervision of Winthrop Ames of the New Theatre with Mrs. Mackay and are to be given by the Equal Franchise Society. The programme includes:

"Hynatia," represented by Mrs. Edward R. Thompson.

"St. Cecilia," represented by Mrs. J. H. Dwyer.

"The Madonna" (by Raphael), represented by Mrs. Charles Dana Gilson.

"An Italian Woman of the Fifteenth Century," represented by Mrs. Philip Lydie.

"Joan of Arc," represented by Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt.

"An Italian Woman of Russia," represented by Mrs. George Gould.

"Mary Wollstonecraft," represented by Mrs. Bourke Cockran.

"Elizabeth Nightingale," represented by Mrs. Mackay.

"Goddess of Liberty," represented by Mrs. James B. Stillman.

Seek Lady Hesketh Son

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Frederick Forster-Hesketh, the younger son of Lady E. Hesketh, daughter of the late Lord Shaftesbury, mysteriously disappeared a week ago. He left his mother's residence at Euston, Northamptonshire, a week ago Saturday and has not been heard of since. It is thought that he went to Dublin, and the police of that city are searching for him.

Frederick Hesketh, 2 years old a lieutenant in the Ninthancers, the regiment to which Lord Shaftesbury, who recently visited New York, also belongs. Hesketh's disappearance is believed to be due to loss of memory.

Sensor's daughter, Florence, married Sir Thomas Goreau, former Hesketh, the seventh son of the late Lord Shaftesbury, December 23, 1880, and has been prominent for many years in British high society.

Mrs. Corey May Act

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Mrs. William E. Corey, who before her marriage was Maybelle Gilman, a "shrew" of the European singers who arrived yesterday, of appearing in the "Taming of the Shrew," both in New York and London. She does not need to go on the stage, as she has a very comfortable life on the outskirts of Paris, but if Shakespeare's comedy is ever presented in the cause of charity, Mrs. Corey will surely like to take part.

Girl Accused Forger

GREELEY, Colo., Nov. 9.—Florence Dunn, a 25-year-old student at the State Normal School here, was arrested on charges of forgery after a search covering several months. In the course of which she was taken to the home of her parents in Salt Lake.

According to the police, the girl confessed, declaring that she had forged checks to carry on her education and had passed two worthless checks for $25 each.

At the police station the girl gave the name of Mrs. George W. Gale, declaring that Dunn was an assumed name. At the Normal school she was known by still another name, which the girl refused to disclose.

Sues for $60,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Mrs. W. C. Stewart, who was estranged from her husband, 208 South Mountain avenue, Montclair, N. J., on September 26, has sued to recover virtually all the $60,000 furnishings. A writ has been served on Mrs. Kennedy, to show her husband has been left by the legal representatives of Mrs. W. B. Lee's estate, stepdaughter of Mrs. Stewart, owner of the house.

Roughs It on Horseback

MISS FRANCES L. SULLIVAN.

PHILADELPHIA.—"Tired? Not a bit of it! A long horseback ride is the best sport there is!" With these enthusiastic words Miss Frances Livingston Sullivan, a well-known eastern society girl, scornfully repudiated the charge of weariness after a five-day horseback trip through Lancaster and Chester counties, Pennsylvania, in company with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tindle, and Moncure Robinson. Rivaling the requirements of the soldiers' "hike" in the service, the party traveled some thirty-five miles a day, and far from being surfeited with the journey hint at plans for another tour.

Mrs. Tindle, the other woman of the party, is the daughter of Secretary of State and Mrs. Philander C. Knox, and sister of Philander, Jr., who recently eloped with shop-girl. Ever since her marriage Mrs. Tindle has been in the habit of taking the five-mile gallop from her home in Berwin to her parents' estate at Valley Forge several times a week.

Girl Masquerades for Months as a Farm Hand

While posing as a boy at the farm of the Bells she was nicknamed "Handsome Jimmy" and was quite a favorite with the girls of that section, paying attention to one for some time, and even taking her to dances. Being slim, tall, and with auburn hair, closely clipped, Miss Masquerade made all the boys and girls "sit up and take notice."

Mr. and Mrs. Bell say they will adopt Miss Masquerade if she will live with them, and thus partially fill the vacancy in their hearts caused by the death of an only daughter a few years ago, who had just lived until now, would have been just the same as a boy. True her occupation has resulted in finding a home for herself.

The disclosure has relieved many a heartburn from the swains of the surrounding country, who were forced to step aside for "Handsome Jimmy," and the country lasses are kept busy explaining "they were only fooling."

Then the whole story came out.

Double Elopement Arouses Pa's Ire

PHILADELPHIA.—Four souls with but a single thought—to get married quickly—gravitated on Wednesday to Wilmington, the haven of impatient lovers, and in dispatch and a double-knot twisted in their lives thinking, in the innocence of their youth, that all would be well, and that their parents would hand out the proverbial blessing.

But things were not as rosy as they ought to have been, and tonight one of the brides, formerly Miss Jennie V. Ellis, of 1817 Myrtle street, will be remarried according to the rights of the Catholic Church, to James K. Davis. The ceremony, which will be performed by a priest of St. Thomas church, Seventeenth and Morris streets, has been insisted upon by the girl's parents, who declare that while they have no objection to Davis as a son-in-law they will not consent to their daughter's marriage out of the church.

The other pair, George S. Benkert, 1217 Rittenberg street, and Lizzie Van Blank, 1010 Myrtle street, who took time by the forelock and followed the lure of Cupid without consulting their parents, are still unforgiven and the bride's mother intimated yesterday that it was a pretty kettle of fish, and that she wouldn't stand for any such foolishness, and that the less said about it the better.

The thing happened in the most romantic way possible. Young Davis, who is in the wall papering business, and who had been engaged to Miss Ellis for some time, proposed a trip to Wilmington, to cut short their long engagement, and to do away with the necessity of joining the Catholic Church which he thought the girl's parents would impose on him. He invited his friend, George Benkert, to go along as best man, and Benkert suggested that he bring his fiancée, Miss Elizabeth Van Blank, along to act as bridesmaid. The friends had no intention of being married, but when they saw how easy it was to get a license and with what facility the Rev. George S. Wolfe performed the ceremony making Miss Ellis Mrs. Davis, they were seized with the idea of doing likewise.

"We might as well make a double wedding of it," said Benkert, "and all go back together and announce the news."

The young persons all live within a stone's throw of each other, so the scheme looked all right, and they returned to the license clerk for the requisite papers, telling him they had overlooked part of the formalities. After the other wedding was performed they telephoned the girl's parents, "We are all married!" Mrs. Davis received the answer, "All right, bring your husband home," so she was not prepared for the fervent refusal to speak to her until the ceremony has been solemnized according to the services of the Catholic Church.

Lady Warwick Finds Socialism Is a Bore

LONDON.—Though in a nice position, Whistler's old house in Tite street, Chelsea, is absolutely out of the track of the smart set. That, of course, makes no difference to Lady Warwick, or so she says. She has taken a lease of it for a year from its present owner, Orin Peck, the American artist who spends so much of his time on the continent.

Lady Warwick, who has already paid a visit of some time to Whistler's one-time residence, has been telling her friends that she wants to breathe the aura of the great man.

It is being said by those who are observant that the courteous lady Socialism itself a bore, and that in her heart she never really believed in it. Nevertheless it is pretty safe to predict that she will die preferring her adopted theories. The countess is not a consistent woman and she soon tires of things. She grew weary of her shop in Bond street and eventually sold it and even thought of it for a mere song. Her house in which women students were trained as gentlemen became, after some years, such a trial to her that the mere mention of it made her want to "save things."

HOSTESS PREPARING FOR SEASON.

Now that the period of deep quiet morning has expired hostesses are discarding their black gowns and making plans for the very season as well as for the season. Anglo-American leaders of society have found their enforced repose trying amusement and entertaining are the heart of their noise. When the Duchess of Marlborough tears herself away from the golf course at North Berwick, or she returned last week, she is to give a reception of small dinners and dances. In St. James's house, though it is on the cards that she may pay a visit to the United States before long.

Mrs. George Cornwallis West, who of late has taken to entertaining only the select, otherwise the select set—can't be bothered with mere society people if they have nothing else to recommend them," she says. She is now making her plans for the recreation year and means to fix up her comfortable in several mansions for the winter season. During the season of 1911 Mrs. West hopes to set a very handsome fortune in letting or selling houses.

PLEGED TO MARRY IF HE IS ELECTED

SPRINGFIELD, Wis.—Francis J. McGovern, the Republican candidate for governor, has made a pledge to become a beneficiary of elected governor. The pledge was made at the dinner table before his address last night. "If you are elected governor," said Chairman W. F. Hubert of the Republican county committee to Mr. McGovern, "you will have to get married."

The sentiment was received by everyone around the table and almost with one accord that party exclaimed, "Yes, there is no question about that. Mr. McGovern, if elected governor, you will have to get a wife."

Flushing, McGovern finally managed to blurt out, "I promise you that I will marry if I am elected governor."

Later McGovern told he had no one in view now as a possible fiancée.

JAPAN OUT-RENOS RENO

Found: A nation where divorces are more prevalent than in the United States.

Reno and Sioux Falls surely cannot "come back," Bishop John McKim of Tokio, who is visiting his brother, James McKim, of 6189 Westminster place, delivered a knockout blow to the Nevada and South Dakota divorce colonies Friday, when he outlined the ease with which Japanese obtain divorces. One of every three marriages in Japan results in a divorce, the Bishop says.

"What are the grounds for divorce in Japan?" the Episcopal Bishop was asked. "Mothers-in-law," replied the Bishop, suavely. "Is there no other cause?" was asked. "No," replied Bishop Kim.

"How long does it take to get a divorce in Japan?"

"About thirty seconds," replied the Bishop. "All a husband has to do is to hand a paper to the Town Registrar, who says: 'I hereby send my wife back to her parents and relinquish her for her claim to her!'"

JOKE BECOMES REALITY.

As in the United States, it's the proverbial mother-in-law who picks you."

The Bishop sighed as he said he guessed the old joke was becoming an alarming reality throughout the world.

"Marriage in Japan is a peculiar thing," explained Bishop McKim, who has devoted thirty-one years of his life to inducing the Nipponese to hunt their idols into the fireplace. He has 15,000 Japanese enlisted in the membership of his diocese.

"Marriages are arranged by the families of the principals," continued the Bishop. "The bride is taken to the home of her husband's parents. She virtually becomes a slave to her mother-in-law's wishes. That's where the trouble starts, and on that point hinges the approaching rebellion of wives."

"Already there has been a marked tendency among wives to take the initiative and procure the divorce decree. Heretofore the divorcing has been done by the husband exclusively. As a usual rule, the husband's mother merely orders him to divorce his wife, and, like a good son, he obeys. The wives are pining in arms against this custom, and are beginning to assert their rights. Suffragettes, you call them in America, don't you?"

Actor's Child Is Barred

BOSTON.—Little Virginia Hassell, blue eyed and gold-haired, aged four and a half years, has been turned out of Miss Woodward's fashionable private school in the Back Bay. She wasn't bad, but her father is an actor.

Mrs. George Hassell, the mother, took the little one to school Wednesday and Thursday. When she came on Friday she was unannounced to Miss Woodward and told that Virginia could not continue going to school there.

"We cannot have children here unless they are from old and well known families," said Miss Woodward.

Mrs. Hassell was amazed. "I come from a good family," she said.

AUTO MAN GOES EAST FOR CARS

Tremendous Demand for the E-M-F and Flanders Cars Follows Cut.

By J. A. HOULIHAN.

Determined to get several hundred more E-M-F and Flanders automobiles in order to meet the tremendous demand for these machines in this part of the country, Chester N. Weaver, general manager of the Studebaker interests in California, Nevada and Arizona, left yesterday morning on the Overland Limited for the E-M-F factory at Detroit. While east Weaver will also visit the first annual aeronautical exhibition at Chicago, after which he will go to New York city on important business matters.

According to Weaver, the demand for the E-M-F company products this season is phenomenal. The Studebaker Bros. Company having sold already for 1911 delivery more than 2800 E-M-F and Flanders cars, the exact figures being 2549.

Ever since the prices of the machines went up the second week of last month, requests from all parts of the state for more cars have been received by Weaver, and it is with the hopes of fulfilling these requests that Weaver has journeyed to Detroit.

Ever since the 1911 models of the E-M-F and Flanders cars made their appearance on the market the demand has far exceeded the supply, and since the price was cut to $1000 on the E-M-F and $1200 on the Flanders, the demand has deluged orders from practically every dealer in the territory. The fact that orders for machines are coming in so heavily at this time of the year clearly indicates the healthy condition of the automobile industry.

Many Cars Entered in Dealers' Show

Among the most complete exhibits to be arranged for the coming Oakland automobile show, scheduled for November 19 to 26, at Idora park, will be that of F. R. Fagel, distributor in Alameda county for the Rambler automobiles. Among the Rambler exhibits will be a polished chassis and finished parts, also a Lincoln, Ford and a car and a seven-passenger car with forty-inch wheels.

The 1911 Rambler production has already attracted much attention because of its elegance and mechanical developments. The completeness of its display is therefore expected to be a decided drawing card for the Oakland show.

Captain Frank Johnson will have three cars in exhibition in the Oakland automobile show which opens at Idora park in two weeks. The machines will include a roadster, touring car and one of the torpedo body Olys.

The new Case car will be seen for the first time in Northern California at the Oakland automobile show. Three models of this car will be exhibited. Manager Snyder of the Oakland Carriage and Implement Company has one of the largest spaces at the show. He will exhibit the Michigan, International Buggy, McFarlan Six and the Black Crag.

A number of 1911 models will be seen for the first time on the coast at the Oakland auto show. The Santa Fe special automobile show train leaving Chicago on Wednesday will contain a number of new creations in the motor world.

BURNS DOGS ALIVE, WOMAN CHARGES

Aspinwall Police Chief Is Accused of Extreme Cruelty.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 9.—Owners of high casts, though unlicensed dogs, in the suburb of Aspinwall charge that their pets have been cast alive into the furnace of the Pittsburgh station plant.

As a result William Gallows, police chief of Aspinwall, will have a hearing on charges of cruelty to animals.

Officials of the Humane Society are prosecuting the case and they have issued a writ to compel the police chief to produce the animals were cremated alive. It is alleged that Gallows lassoed the dogs with the leather loop at the end of his mace, and, twisting the thong about their throats, dragged them to the station plant, where they were kept forty-eight hours before being killed.

The borough provides a large, flat plate of steel, upon which the unlicensed dogs are supposed to be placed and electrocuted. In the charges against Gallows it is asserted this plate was not used and that after the dogs were stunned by a blow upon the head upon which they were thrown into the furnace, although some of them were still living.

RHEUMATISM PAINFUL & DANGEROUS

Rheumatism is due to a diseased condition of the blood cells and corpuscles, brought about by an excess of uric acid in the circulation. It is not only a very painful disease but an extremely dangerous trouble. The briny, acid state of the blood gradually forms a coating over the muscles, and by depositing a cement-like substance in the joints frequently terminates fatally, or leaves its victim a hopeless cripple. It is natural to "doctor" the spot that hurts, and it is quite right to use liniments, hot applications, etc., to get temporary relief from a painful joint or swollen tendon; but Rheumatism is not a skin disease, and such things, when depended on alone make one careless, and the disease gets a firmer hold on the blood. S. S. S. cures the disease because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers.

It goes into the circulation, and every particle of it irritating uric acid, builds up the blood, makes it rich and oily, and in this way prepares it for the proper nourishment of all joints, muscles, nerves and bones. If you have Rheumatism, get the uric acid out of the blood by taking S. S. S., a purely vegetable medicine, and enjoy freedom from its misery. Megeath, of Omaha, Neb., and other capitalists not named contacted to take over the road November 1, 1910, which will probably be operated as the Pennsylvania Southern Railroad. The main line of the road runs from Clarion to Summerville, and with the M. J. Creek and Brush Run branches and including the Mill Creek Railroad, has a total of about forty miles of track.

The P. S. & C. Railroad now connects with the low-grade division of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Summerville, and is crossed by the Jamestown, Franklin and Clearfield Railroad, about four miles west of Summerville at Petrol.

B. and O. Railroad, about three miles west of the P. S. and C. at Clarion, and the P. S. and C. Railroad is about four miles east from the P. S. and C. Railroad at Summerville.

Extension of the road will be made as developments justify. H. Buckham, formerly connected with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad at Omaha, Neb., is to be vice president and general manager of the new road, and is now in active charge, with headquarters at Clarion. It is not expected any change will be made in the present operating state of the P. S. & C. Railroad.

NEWS OF THE OIL FIELDS

NEWS FROM OIL FIELDS INDICATE GREAT ACTIVITY

Development Work to Be Little Curtailed During the Winter Months; Notes of the State

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 9.—The withdrawal order has had a radical effect in the Lost Hills district and evidences of it were seen in the signs and advertisements for the sale of portable rigs. Before the withdrawal order went into effect and the rush to the new district was at its height, portable drilling rigs were in the greatest kind of demand. They brought exorbitant prices, as operators would not stop with any figures in order to obtain possession of one of these outfits in order to begin the race for the oil-bearing sand.

People returning from the desert report a great deal of activity in the way of locating land in and around Red Rock Canyon. All the territory for seventeen miles around is said to be taken up and it is claimed that there are several rigs drilling being financed by southern and northern capitalists.

McKITTRICK ACTIVE

Drilling on the property of the Edward Oil Company, one of the largest operating concerns in this field, will be resumed in a week or ten days after a shut down of several months. McKittrick is feeling the activity in the Lost Hills and Elk Hills territory and every day there is call for men and teams from this center. The Elk Hills seems to be attracting considerable attention in the line of new work and many McKittrick teamsters are hauling to that field.

McKittrick is showing renewed signs of activity following the usual summer lull. Returning drillers and tool dressers find a demand for their labor and a number of the large leases closed down during the summer are now preparing to resume operations.

CURTAIN DEVELOPMENT

The Esperanza Consolidated Oil Company, which has undertaken the development of a great expanse of territory in the Elks Hills, Midway and Sunset district, has curtailed developments to a large extent. A big force of men and sundry equipments have been laid off.

The company is composed of the interests of the counties; number of locators controlling conflicting rights to a great deal of the withdrawn government land in this district. A compromise coalition was formed, headed by Captain John Barneson of San Francisco, and the rights of each set of locators were respected and given an equitable representation in the company. An effort was made to bond the corporation for the purpose of pursuing development work, but the uncertainty attached to the governmental disposition of the withdrawn land has been responsible for the failure of the building companies to approve of the formation and the result is that the company's operations are being curtailed.

COALINGA PROSPECTION

COALINGA, Nov. 9.—Several small companies are prospecting development work in the near neighborhood and all along the east slope of the anticline and before the first of the coming year has been rounded out this comparatively new ground will boast of many fine producing wells. The products from properties on the east slope of the Coalinga anticline have thus far shown greater value for refining purposes than any other oil of the same gravity produced in the Coalinga field and this fact is responsible for the fancy prices at which ground in that territory is held. It is likewise responsible for the extensive amount of development work being carried forward there. The Coalinga district is displaying a greater amount of activity in the way of development than the anticline and probably no other section offers greater encouragement for the discovery of profitable wells.

PROFESSOR WEDS GIRL HE MET IN FAR EAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—A romance of the far east in which Professor A. B. Clayton, now principal of the San Pedro High School, met his bride to be in Japan a year ago, reached its culmination with the receipt of announcements of his marriage Friday to Miss Pauline Cleveland, a University of the Pacific girl at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ella Cleveland, at 1501 Sacramento street. Professor Clayton first saw Miss Cleveland soon after entering the service of the United States as special instructor in the government schools at Sordaniapan being in charge of English instruction to the young Japanese. While he was at his post, he met his future wife, a daughter of the late Rev. G. Cleveland, a missionary in the Methodist church.

Clayton returned to California in 1905 and secured the principalship of the high school at Long Beach. He is now in charge of the school at San Pedro.

Professor and Mrs. Clayton have left for San Pedro where he will continue with his work in the schools.

FOUR CONVICTS RESCUE HUNTERS FROM BAY

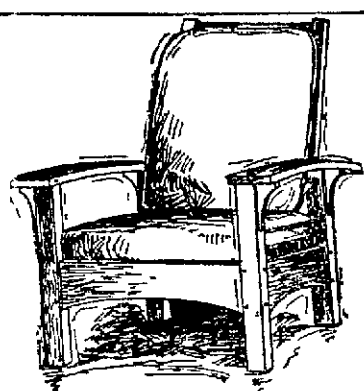

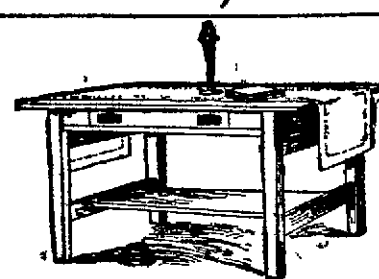

SAN RAFAEL, Nov. 9.—Four convicts disguised themselves as stearia after noon by rescuing Grover C. Reed and W. Carey of San Anselmo from a duck blind in San Francisco Bay. Reed and Carey were hunting ducks from a rowboat. They detected the boat to be in the bay for an hour the boat drifted away. The tide rose and they were in danger of drowning.

Steward Frank Arbogast of San Quentin prison saw the men and called upon four convicts to row him out to the duck blind. Four men volunteered and in less than fifteen minutes they had rescued Reed and Carey who were taken to San Quentin. They returned to their homes in San Anselmo late last night.

"Craftsman" Furniture

The quality, the style, the workmanship and the finish of "Craftsman" turned oak is found in NO OTHER furniture on the market today. True, there are many imitations, but all good things are imitated. There is one satisfaction, however, to the owner of "Craftsman" furniture, the imitator cannot get that warm, nut brown finish nor does he take the time to give the article the same finished appearance. You will find the prices on "Craftsman" furniture very reasonable considering quality. See our large showing on the first floor.

AVIATORS WILL MEET IN SOUTH

Rough Riders of the Sky Will Hold Flight in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—It is now practically assured that Los Angeles will have an aviation meet in January that will eclipse all meetings of the kind ever held so far in America or Europe. Local enthusiasts have been negotiating with Isaac I. Ludwig, head of the Aero Club of America, and the arrangements have reached a practical basis that will undoubtedly result in the definite announcement of a big meeting within a few days. The world's premier in the new sport will be among those to fly in this city. The famous Wright duo, J. H. C. Wright and Baldwin, with Curtiss, Leitch and Brooks, are included to come. No one but the English aviator who won all the honors at the recent Boston meet and who competed with Paulhan in the London to Manchester race will be one of the Los Angeles contenders. No one but the English aviator who won all the honors at the recent Boston meet and who competed with Paulhan in the London to Manchester race will be one of the Los Angeles contenders. No one but the English aviator who won all the honors at the recent Boston meet and who competed with Paulhan in the London to Manchester race will be one of the Los Angeles contenders.

AVIATION STARS COMING

In addition to these stars in the aviation world Hamilton, who made his introduction to the public at the meet in Los Angeles last year, and Willard and Curtiss who were at the last meet here, will again compete. J. C. Mars, with a Curtiss machine, Anderson, with a French Wright, Simon with an Antoinette, Frisbie and Baldwin with Curtiss machines, and Anderson, who drives the French Durosall all are coming. Harkness and Barter, who have recently made good records in the East, will also take part in the meetings here. A great aggregation of aviators will be augmented by a number of California contestants. Walsh of San Diego, in a Curtiss, and Rehrig of the same city, in a Farmington, will fly for laurels. Martin of Santa Ana will fly a Curtiss and Bernard Bernie of Long Beach and J. C. McCoy will fly Farmington. Stephens will use a monoplane of his own make. A list of the stars and members of the Aero Club of California, and the club will enthusiastically back the enterprise. When it is remembered that Curtiss and Paulhan were the only experienced fliers at the meeting in Los Angeles last year and that Hamilton and Willard were novices at that time some idea can be formed of the magnitude of the proposed exhibition for January, with sixteen of the leading aviators of the world in flight.

NORTH BEACH TO HOLD CARNIVAL

Will Celebrate Thanksgiving Week With Fiesta and Street Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—A grand street fair and carnival will take place in the North Beach district of this city, beginning Thanksgiving day, November 24, and continuing for three days. The festivities promise to be of a truly novel nature and will include many high class shows that are being brought over from the East. A feature of the carnival will be the aquatic and field sports including a fisherman's race. An airplane flight will be made from the summit of Telegraph Hill to the Presidio parade grounds. During the Mardi Gras nights masking and dancing will be encouraged. Confetti and serpentine battles are to be among the chief features with a day and night parade unsurpassed for beauty and magnificence. Fifteen elaborate floats are being constructed depicting characteristic scenes of the early life of California and the legends of the city and state. A queen and king will reign supreme during the festival. The contest for the choice of these is now on and is occupying the attention of the people of the district. That a great fight for the honor will take place before the end of the contest is fully assured.

Have You Tried?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. We can furnish positive proof that it has made many remarkable cures after all other means had failed.

Women who are suffering with some form of female illness should consider this.

As such evidence read these two unsolicited testimonial letters. We guarantee they are genuine and honest statements of facts.

Cresson, Pa.—"Five years ago I had a bad fall and hurt myself inwardly. I was under a doctor's care for nine weeks, and when I stopped I grew worse again. I sent for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, took it as directed, and now I am a stout, hearty woman."—Mrs. Ella L. Akeley, Cresson, Pa.

Baird, Wash.—"A year ago I was sick with kidney and bladder troubles and female weakness. The doctors gave me up. All they could do was to just let me go as easily as possible. I was advised by friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. I am completely cured of my illness, and I am nearly sixty years old."—Mrs. Sarah Leighton, Baird, Wash.

Evidence like the above is abundant showing that the derangements of the female organism which breed all kinds of miserable feelings and which ordinary practice does not cure, are the very disorders that give way to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are afflicted with similar troubles, after reading two such letters as the above, should be encouraged to try this wonderfully helpful remedy.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
